Difficulty levels on mountain trails

EASY Easy mountain paths are often narrow, maybe steep and have no sections where there is danger of falling down ravines etc.

MODERATELY DIFFICULT Moderately difficult mountain trails are mostly narrow, often steep and may include short secured passages and sections where there is a risk of falling.

DIFFICULT (with via ferrata set) Difficult mountain trails are narrow, often steep and prone to landslides. There are also frequent secured walking passages and/or easy climbing sections that require the use of your hands. Sure-footedness and a head for heights are essential!
